Subject : Non-Resident Military Exemptions

Procedure

Effective immediately, non-resident military personnel must be stationed in California to qualify for the vehicle license fee (VLF) exemption.

A Statement of Facts, REG 256, Section G, Non-Resident Military Exemption form, must accompany the application for registration declaring that the duty station is in California.

Background

Currently, non-resident military personnel are exempt from paying the vehicle license fee (VLF) when a vehicle or trailer coach, owned or leased by them, is registered in California.

The non-resident military exemption form provides for the VLF exemption on a vehicle or trailer coach, if the non-resident's duty station is in California or the vehicle is located in California.
